

SHRISHAKTHI SIVAMANI – FTE IN GAVS

About the Company:

GAVS Technologies, headquartered in Chennai, India, is a global IT services and solutions provider established in 2007. They offer a comprehensive portfolio of services, encompassing IT infrastructure management, cloud computing solutions, robust cybersecurity offerings, and digital transformation initiatives. GAVS distinguishes itself through a strong commitment to both technological innovation and a customer-centric approach. This includes significant investment in research and development to ensure cutting-edge solutions, coupled with a focus on building and nurturing long-term partnerships with clients. Serving businesses of all sizes and across diverse industries, GAVS has earned a solid reputation for quality and reliability within the competitive IT landscape.

About the Role: They came for multiple roles

Overview of the Process:

The overall process consisted of

- An Online Test in MyAnatomy (total 3 hrs)
 - Aptitude
 - Coding test – 2
 - Speaking test
 - Reading test
 - Listening test
- Interview Round 1 (25 mins)
- HR Round (20 mins)

Online Coding Test

1)Combination of coins – to determine the number of ways of making change for a particular number of units using the given types of coins.

2)MAX AND – A logical conjunction of P and Q where the value of P,Q is maximum .

Interview Round 1

The interview covered both resume-based and technical questions, focusing on:

(Intro about yourself)

1. Project-related Questions

- Why the latest technology was chosen
- Reasons for selecting the specific tech stack
- Challenges faced and solutions implemented

2. MERN Stack vs. AngularJS

- Justification for using MERN Stack , Why not AngularJS?

3. Technical Questions

- ReactJS, MongoDB, PostgreSQL – Basic concepts
- SQL Queries – Writing and optimizing queries
- Database Importance – Why databases are necessary

4. Data Structures & Algorithms (DSA)

- Arrays – Basic coding problems (Python)
- How arrays are different from lists
- HashMaps & Linked Lists – Differences and working principles
- Stacks – Operations and implementation
- Graphs & Trees – Fundamental concepts

Any questions for him

They also asked us to talk about something that was not there in the resume

HR Round – SWAT (Managerial and HR)

The managerial round focused primarily on SWOT analysis and HR-based evaluation, assessing communication skills, articulation, and problem-solving approach. The key questions asked were:

1. Introduction – Briefly describe yourself.
2. Scenario-based Question – Discuss the rise of AI and analyze whether human intelligence or artificial intelligence will dominate in the future.
3. Why GAVS? – Reasons for choosing the company.
4. Transportation & Flexibility – Thoughts on adaptability and work flexibility.
5. Any questions for her

Preparation Strategy

- Regular Practice – Consistently solved problems on platforms like HackerRank to refine problem-solving skills.
- Approach Mechanism – Followed structured learning from YouTube channels such as CodeIO for better conceptual clarity.

- DSA Focus – Worked through the Striver Sheet, emphasizing optimal techniques for solving problems efficiently.
- Concept Revision – Regularly brushed up on DBMS, OS, and Computer Networks, focusing on scenario-based questions to strengthen core fundamentals.

Tricks Followed

- Researched Previous Questions – Reviewed Glassdoor and other platforms for past interview questions to understand patterns.
- Maintained Confidence – Approached the interview with confidence and a positive attitude.
- Handled Unknown Questions Gracefully – If unsure about a question, admitted it politely while expressing a willingness to learn.
- Engaged with the Interviewer – Asked relevant questions to demonstrate curiosity and understanding of the role.
- A positive outlook