ROUND 1: (ONLINE TEST)

It was conducted on AMCAT Platform. There was no negative marking. Attempting all the questions was mandatory. It had three sections.

1. Verbal Aptitude
2. Business Aptitude
3. Two Coding Questions

For coding questions, the difficulty lies in understanding the questions.

ROUND 2: (TECHNICAL INTERVIEW)

It was conducted in zoom. It was a 45 min interview.

- The interviewer asked me for an introduction.
- Then he asked me to explain concepts in OOPS and OS. He asked whether I implemented these concepts in my projects. For example when talking about data structures he asked whether you implemented any data structure in your project. I told him about my project where we used dijkstra to find the shortest path.
- He asked about some of the projects in my resume and my contribution to it.
- Overall the interview was focused on testing my knowledge in core subjects and my projects.

ROUND 3: (MANAGERIAL INTERVIEW)

It was conducted in zoom. It was a 30 min interview. The interview focused on checking your managerial skills and whether you are fit for the company.

The questions are

- What do you know about Wells Fargo?
- What comes to the mind when you think of Wells Fargo?
- What domain do you like to work on?
- He chose one project from my resume and asked how the user can use it?

ROUND 4: (HR INTERVIEW)

It was a phone interview. It was a 15 min interview.

The questions are

- About my family background
- About my hobbies

- How do you see yourself in 5 years?
- Are you willing to relocate?

Interviews are more about mind and communication. Always answer in a positive and polite way.

ALL THE BEST
