The technical round is for about 25-30 minutes. The questions were as follows.

1. Tell me about yourself
2. Question on array.
3. Questions on projects mentioned in the resume.
4. Asked to tell an idea which I would like to implement in Citicorp
5. If your manager refuses to listen to your ideas, will you quit the job or will you try any other alternatives?
6. What do you consider important, Listening or Speaking?
7. What are your short term and long term goals?.
8. Suppose after joining Citicorp, if you are getting a lucrative offer from Google, what will you do?
9. Any questions regarding the company

Be bold in answering these questions and don't be in a hurry to answer the questions, think properly before telling your answers.

Round 3: HR Interview

This round is for about 5-10 minutes. The following questions were asked.

1. Tell me about yourself ?
2. Why Citicorp?

For the last question, do some background research on the company if you are about to ask questions on the company's culture and stuff. Other questions can be about the learning process or you can pick up topics from the company's presentation.

Topics to be focused:

- Data Structures and Algorithms
- Prepare answers for common HR questions and 'about yourself' question prior.

Take Away:

Be bold and though if you are not able to answer a question properly do not worry too much about it and let it affect your interview. Try to keep a calm head thought and respond in a positive manner.

Hope this helps.

Thank you and All the Best.
